

Praise children genuinely as much as you can

Make time to play with your child. This is more important to them than stars and stickers

Good specific praise is when you explain what you like about what they are doing

I really like it when you tidy the toys away

Add a gesture to spoken praise and it works even better

Look for the good things that your children do. Tell the child and everyone about it

Choose the correct time to praise a child

Praise

By Sarah Wilson-Clark, Melissa Jackson and Lucy Barnard 2020

Behaviour Support Team 2-12