

Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Event for Schools and Colleges

Three places per school / college (Head, Chair of Governors, SENCo)

Thursday, 14 July 2016

at the Baths Hall, Scunthorpe
9.00am to 4.30pm (9.30am start)

- Share best practice in identifying, supporting and meeting the needs of children and young people with SEND in schools and colleges
- Find out about the SEND reforms and the implications for schools and colleges
- Share information on the expectations of schools and colleges for children and young people with SEN and Disabilities in the context of SEND Local Area Inspections

Includes:

- Young people's and parents' perspectives
- National and local speakers
- Networking and sharing good practice
- Free lunch and refreshments
- Exhibits and marketplace stalls
- Opportunity to ask questions, make comments and share ideas

Speakers

Dr André Imich	SEN and Disability Professional Adviser, Department for Education (DfE)
Dr Tom Canning, OBE	Executive Head at Tollgate Primary School in East London (who has also taken on the role of Executive Head at the nearby Cleves Primary School)
David Bartram, OBE	Director for SEN at the London Leadership Strategy
Dr Jane Gould	Service Manager: Specialist and Inclusive Education and Principal Educational Psychologist, East Riding

We hope you will join us for this exciting and informative event

You can book your place by one of the following methods (by 28 June 2016)

- Online at Eventbrite on <http://send4schools.eventbrite.co.uk>
- E mail: Businesssupportteam@northlincs.gov.uk
- Telephone 01724 297189
- Or complete the reply slip over the page

North Lincolnshire
Clinical Commissioning Group

